

The DataGame Project empowers adult educators to navigate data privacy and safety in their teaching. We focus on raising awareness, clarifying key concepts, and equipping educators with practical tools to create a secure digital environment for adult learners.

KICK OFF MEETING

The DataGame project kick-off meeting, hosted by die Berater in Vienna on November 21-22, 2023, brought together representatives from the five project partners of the consortium to align on goals, roles, and activities.

DATAGAME

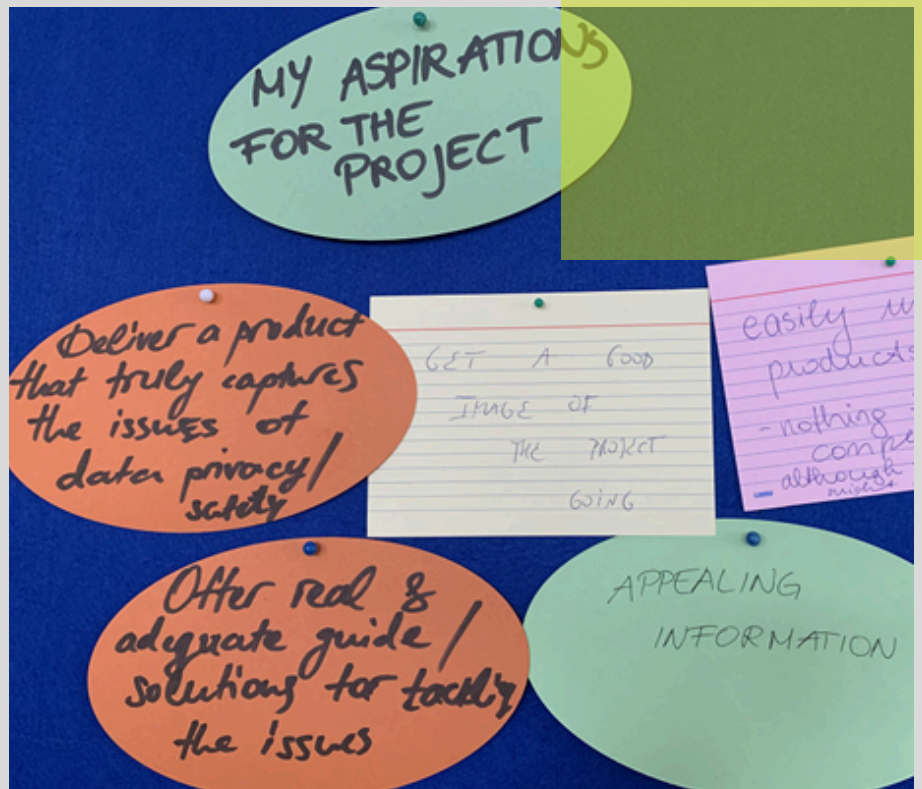

KICK OFF MEETING IN VIENNA

The first day of the DataGame project kick-off meeting in Vienna focused on aligning partners and establishing a common understanding of the project's objectives, outputs, and collaborative processes.

The meeting included introductions, a team-building icebreaker, and discussions about each partner's expertise and contributions. Key topics included project expectations, concerns, and aspirations.

WHAT IS DATA PRIVACY?

Data privacy is ensuring that sensitive data, such as financial information or medical records, is only accessed by authorized personnel.
